The Emirates A380 – Facts and Figures

- Emirates was the first airline to order the Airbus A380 back in 2000
- Emirates is the world's largest A380 operator, flying this iconic double-decked aircraft to 48 cities on six continents on scheduled services
- Including one-off flights, special commemorative services, test flights, and other operational deployments, 70 airports to date have welcomed the Emirates A380, including Munich, Frankfurt, Düsseldorf, Hamburg (one-off 100th airport anniversary), Berlin (ILA Berlin Air Show), Dresden (EWF/Airbus) and Cologne (German Aerospace Day 2015) in Germany
- Emirates has ordered a total of 142 A380s at a total value of 61b US$ in list prices
- One in every three A380s in the sky today is an Emirates aircraft. Its order book represents over 40 percent of the total orders received by Airbus for this aircraft
- Of Emirates' 100 A380s, 13 are in dual-class configuration (Business/Economy Class)
- Each A380 flight has 24 cabin crew and two cabin service assistants working aboard
- Over 23,000 cabin crew and 1,500 flight deck crew are specially trained to operate the A380 fleet
- At the iconic A380 Onboard Lounge mixologists can whip up to 14 different types of cocktails. Emirates has over 6,000 crew trained as mixologists
- The shortest Emirates A380 flight is Dubai to Kuwait (851 kilometres). The longest Emirates A380 flight is Dubai to Auckland (14,193 kilometres)
- In 2016-17 Emirates received 19 new A380s, its highest number during a financial year
- After every seven to eight years in service, Emirates fully strips its aircraft of their exterior color and gives them a brand-new coat. An A380 requires a team of 34 people for a full strip and repaint project, which required almost 6,000 man hours or 15 days. The paint covers an area of 3,076 square metres
- The newly re-designed Onboard Lounge can accommodate up to 26 passengers at a time, including eight seated
- Production costs of one First Class private suite are valued at US$ 500,000
